

AREA OF VALIDITY

The following data protection declaration applies to the use of the website, selected-places.de from Anja Haushalter, Alte Schönhauser Strasse 36-37 in 10119 Berlin (hereinafter referred to as the portal operator) and informs users about the collection, processing and use of personal data. Personal data is information from personal or material circumstances of an identified or identifiable natural person.

The use of the Internet presence is usually possible without providing personal information. When personal data such as a name, address or an e-mail address are requested by the portal, this requirement is as far as possible, always on a voluntary basis. The data shall not be passed on to third parties without the express consent of the user.

It should be pointed out that, and is important to note, that the data transfer through the Internet (e.g., with a communication by e-mail) has security vulnerabilities. A complete protection of data against access by third parties is not possible.

DATA ACCESS

For technical reasons, the portal operator of this platform (more specifically the web space provider) collects data on each access of the offer. Access to the data includes:

- The name of the requested webpage
- The date and time of the request
- The amount of data transferred
- The browser type and its version
- Which operating system was used
- The website from which the user visited this website (referrer URL)
- The IP address of the user - the requesting provider

The data is anonymous and is separated from any personal data, which may be saved. Direct connections to a particular person are not possible. The evaluation is performed for statistical purposes. For the legitimate suspicion of illegal use, the portal operator reserves the right to check the data retrospectively.

USAGE OF PERSONAL DATA

The collection, usage or processing of personal data by the portal operator only occurs when legally permitted or users agree in the assessment of data.

A transfer of data to third parties will only be made if this is necessary for the processing of concrete inquiries and the settlement of the contract conditions.

INTEGRATION OF THIRD PARTY SERVICES AND CONTENT

This website links with third party content. This can be, for example, with photos, YouTube videos, graphics or content from other websites. In such a case, the third party takes your IP address in order for the presentation of content.

CONTACT

Users of this website have the opportunity to make contact with the portal operators (for example via a contact form or by e-mail). In this case of contact, the portal operator saves the information of the user for the purpose of processing the request and for the case of follow up questions or issues. A further transfer of data to third parties does not take place.

NEWSLETTER

With the newsletter the portal operator of the website informs of new accommodation entries on the portal and / or of individual offers.

If users of this Internet presence would like to receive the newsletter, an e-mail address is required. This e-mail address will be checked to determine if the user is also the owner/authorised user of the e-mail address. The data will be used solely for sending the newsletter and will not be forwarded to third parties. No further data is collected.

During the newsletter registration process the IP address and the date of the application are stored. The storage is used exclusively for the event of a third party abuse of the address without the knowledge of the owner or any unauthorised registration to the newsletter.

The consent to the storage of the data and its use can at any time, through a link in the newsletter, be revoked in the profile area or by communication to the afore mentioned contact opportunities.

MAILCHIMP (NEWSLETTER)

With the use of the e-mail distributor is the e-mail address of the user initially briefly stored by "MailChimp". The storage is solely for the purpose of confirming the registration procedure in the framework of the "Double-Opt-in". With confirmation of the e-mail address, "MailChimp" then permanently stores it. The data is saved until the e-mail address is deleted by the user (owner of the e-mail address) or by the operator of the website. Also, the date of the registration and the IP address of the user are stored. This storage is carried out for the purpose of proof against the accusation of the unsolicited sending of e-mails. There follows no alternative usage of the IP address.

COOKIES

This website uses cookies. Cookies are small files that are stored and saved on the computer of the user. Most of the cookies are so-called "session cookies". After the end of the visit, they are deleted. In individual cases, however, these cookies provide information so that the user can be automatically recognised. Cookies are used to improve the user-friendliness of the website and for the collection of statistical data on the usage of the website.

If users do not agree with the use of cookies, there is the possibility to restrict or completely shut off the usage in the browser settings. In the case of restriction or by deactivation of the use of cookies, the usage of the website may be restricted.

USE OF GOOGLE ANALYTICS (UNIVERSAL-ANALYTICS)

This website uses Google Analytics, a web analysis service from Google Inc. ("Google"). Google Analytics uses "cookies", text files that are saved on the computer of the user and are an analysis of the visit to the site by the user. The information generated by the cookie about the use of this website (including your IP address) is sent to a Google server in the USA and stored there. Your IP Address will be anonymous by using the method `_anonymizeIp()`. An allocation of the connection of the user is therefore not possible.

Google uses this information to evaluate the usage of the website, compiling reports on website activity for website operators and providing other and Internet-related services. Google will use this information, if necessary, with third parties, unless not allowed by law or third parties process this data on behalf of Google. Google will, in any case, use the IP address of the user with other data connection of Google.

Users can choose the installation of the cookies by a corresponding setting in their browser software. It should be noted that users in this case may not see all the features of this website to their full extent. Through the use of this website, the user declares that they agree with the processing of data about them by Google in the manner described and for the aforementioned purpose.

DATA PROTECTION DECLARATION

The logo for 'selected places' is located in the top right corner. It features the word 'selected' in a white, cursive script font above the word 'places' in a white, bold, sans-serif font. A small white dot is positioned to the right of 'places'. The entire logo is set against a dark green rectangular background.

By downloading and installing the browser plug-in with <http://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=de>, users can prevent the acquisition and transmission of their usage-related data (including the IP address) to Google and the processing of the data by Google. Users can also, by clicking on "Disable "Google Analytics", prevent future acquisition by Google Analytics. The future acquisition of data, when you visit this website, is then disabled by setting a so-called "opting out"-cookies.

USE OF FACEBOOK PLUG-INS

Integrated on this website are the plug-ins of the social network Facebook, 1601 South California Avenue, Palo Alto, CA 94304, USA. The Facebook plug-ins are on the Facebook logo or the "Like" button ("Like Me"). An overview of the Facebook plug-ins can be found at Developers.facebook.com/docs/plugins/.

When you visit this website, the plug-in has a direct connection between the browser of the user and the Facebook server. Facebook receives the information that the user's browser visited this page with its IP Address. If a user clicks the Facebook "Like" button while they are logged in to their Facebook account, the user can link the contents of this website on their Facebook profile. Thereby, Facebook can assign the user's visit to this website to their account. It is noted that the portal operator of this website has no knowledge of the content of the transmitted data or the usage by Facebook. More information about this can be found in the data protection declaration of Facebook at de-de.facebook.com/policy.php

If the Facebook user is not logged into their account an association of the visit to this website by Facebook is not possible.

PINTEREST

Integrated on this website are so-called social plugins ("Plug-ins") of the social network Pinterest. These are used by Pinterest Inc., 635 High Street, Palo Alto, CA 94301, USA ("Pinterest"). When the user calls up a page of this website, which contains such a plug-in, the browser will establish a direct connection to the servers of Pinterest. The plug-in sends a so-called protocol data to the server from Pinterest in the USA. Detailed information (in particular to the purpose and extent of the data collection, processing and usage of data, rights and setting options for the protection of privacy) can be viewed in the privacy notices of Pinterest under the following link: <https://about.pinterest.com/de/privacy-policy>
